Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1, 2, 9-11, 14-16, 22-29 & 33-37 drawn to a composite laminate with moisture transfer properties, classified in class 442, subclass 370.
 - II. Claims 17, 30 & 38, drawn to a composite fabric with absorbent properties, classified in class 442, subclass 414.
 - III. Claims 20 & 31, drawn to a composite fabric with a reinforcing layer, classified in class 442, subclass 30.
 - IV. Claims 21 & 42, drawn to a foam with a spacer fabric, classified in class 428, subclass 304.4+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions because they have different functions. Invention I functions by transferring moisture through the composite and Invention II functions by absorbing moisture.
3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions as they have different effects. Invention III has a flexible mesh layer which provides structural integrity which invention I lacks.
4. Inventions I and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. Invention IV has a spacer fabric between two foam layers which Invention I lacks.

5. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects, as Invention II has additional absorbent nonwoven layers while Invention III has an additional flexible mesh for structural integrity.

6. Inventions II and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects, as Invention II has an additional absorbent layer while Invention IV has an additional spacer fabric layer.

7. Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects, as in this case Invention III has a flexible mesh layer for structural integrity while Invention IV has a spacer fabric layer.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. If Applicant chooses Group I then the Applicant must also elect a species.

10. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Art Unit: 1771

- a 4 layer composite comprising an inner layer, a foam layer backed by a nonwoven sheet and a second foam layer (Claim 1 & 2);
- a 3 layered composite comprising an inner layer, a foam layer and a nonwoven top sheet (claims 9, 10, 11, 23, 26 , 29, 33 , 35 & 36);
- a 2 layered composite comprising an inner layer and a foam layer (claims 14, 24, 27 & 34);
- A 3 layered composite comprising a nonwoven layer, foam and an outer layer (Claims 15, 16 & 19);
- A 2 layered composite comprising a foam and a nonwoven (claims 22, 25, 28 & 37)

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered no responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

11. A telephone call was made to Mr. Shrinath Malur on 08/26/2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
